April, 2017

Dear Friend,

Summertime provides a wonderful opportunity for all children to continue growing both academically and socially. This summer camp directory* lists camps and programs for children with and without special needs, offering a range of both outdoor and indoor activities as well as opportunities for day and overnight camping experiences.

This unique directory provides families a wide range of available program options, dates, locations and care emphasis from which to choose. Many camps offer specialized medical care for specific disabilities or one-on-one support counselors, while other camps provide academic tutoring for individuals with learning disabilities in addition to outdoor activities.

To help you make the best choice for your child's needs, you are encouraged to visit a camp's website and/or contact the facility directly. Program coordinators are available to answer specific questions and assist you with the enrollment process.

SERC hopes you find this summer camp directory useful. Please feel free to share this information with others.

Camp Laurel	Town: Lebanon County: New London

Sprawling fields and rustic buildings combined with an intricate trail network set the scene for an amazing camp experience. Girls will explore their surroundings at Laurel while hiking, swimming, boating, and challenging themselves to try new activities. In a camp rich with tradition, every girl will treasure the friendships forged and memories made at camp.

For girls looking to gain new skills, the horseback riding programs at Laurel are designed for all levels of riders. On the first day, girls' riding abilities are thoughtfully assessed, and they are placed into riding groups that allow them to work comfortably and confidently at their own pace. Safety is always the first priority. Bad weather and excessive heat may shorten the time that the camper is actually on horseback. If that happens, they'll work on other horse-related activities. Laurel and Timber Trails are inclusive equestrian programs – in the two-hour sessions, girls will learn horse and stable care which includes mucking stalls, feeding, grooming, and tacking horses. In between assigned riding rotations, girls work on equestrian theory.

Special Needs Accommodated: Girls with physical and/or intellectual disabilities are welcome. All abilities are welcome. Please contact program director to discuss special needs or accommodations.

Camp MOE	Town: Torrington County: Litchfield

Camp MOE is named in honor of Emil “Moe” Renzullo, a very special 12-year-old boy who passed away in April 2010. Moe’s love of camp, whether it was swimming, skateboarding, leading the camp in the morning cheer, or taking walks with his counselor, was evident to all involved at the camp. Moe’s enthusiasm, love and caring ways for others taught everyone whose life he touched so much. The camp creates Memorable Outdoor Experiences in Litchfield County.

The mission of Camp MOE is to provide an ideal outdoor recreation environment where all campers with or without disabilities have the opportunity to develop friendships, leadership skills, responsibility for self and respect for others.

Special Needs Accommodated: Camp MOE empowers campers to look beyond their abilities and the abilities of others, while supporting their growth mentally, physically, and socially in a safe, inclusive environment.

Channel 3 Kids Camp - Overnight Camp	Town: Andover County: Tolland

For 105 years, Channel 3 Kids Camp has been an exciting playground and retreat for Connecticut boys & girls, ages 8-13, with expanded programs for children with special needs, ages 8-18. The overnight program allows campers to design their own adventure through a wide variety of camp activities that broaden self-esteem, communication and respect for others.

The camp is proud to offer a safe, active, affordable and fun program for every camper! Overnight camp runs for 8 different sessions, in one-week intervals. Cozy screened-in cabins house 6 campers each and are separated by age and gender. Nearby wash-houses provide running water and hot showers. Each cabin has two staff members to bunk with and supervise the cabin.

The camp experience is all about having fun, being independent, making friends, and challenging oneself to try out new things. Campers grouped by age can meet new friends and participate in age-appropriate activities. Campers receive instruction on correct swimming techniques in a fun, supportive, and safe way. A 3:1 camper-to-counselor ratio provides the security of a safe, highly supervised program. As a certified Healthy Dining establishment, the camp provides healthy breakfasts, lunches, dinners and snacks.

Special Needs Accommodated: Children/youth with and without a disability are welcome.

Discovery Zone at Elmwood	Town: West Hartford County: Hartford

Offered in the air-conditioned comfort of the Elmwood Community Center, this camp is a happy hybrid between a regular recreation program and the more intensive support of Beachland Adventures. With a staff-to-camper ratio of 1:3, this camp is recommended for children with disabilities who are quite independent in the mainstream school environment and need a bit more support to fully engage with the camp experience. It would also be an excellent introduction to day camp for youngsters who are shy or anxious about the experience. Activities include outside games, outdoor water play, arts and crafts, playing with LEGO bricks and board games, and making new friends.

Please contact the Town of West Hartford Leisure Services Special Needs Coordinator at (860) 561-8173 regarding your child's participation in the program.

iCan Bike Program – Miracle League of CT	Town: West Hartford County: Hartford Other Sites: East Lyme, Milford

Research shows that over 80% of people with autism spectrum disorders and 90% of people with Down syndrome never experience the thrill of independently riding a conventional two-wheel bicycle. Defying these odds is the goal of this camp!

The program uses a specifically designed bicycle referred to as an “adapted roller trainer bike.” Participants pedal a series of trainer bikes designed to be ultra-stable and then progress towards conventional two-wheeled bicycles and become successful riders.

Applicants must be motivated to learn to ride a two-wheeled bicycle; able to work in a group setting with instructors and volunteers; walk without an assistive device (e.g., walker or cane); side step swiftly to both sides; wear a properly fitted bike helmet at all times while on a bicycle; have a minimum inseam measurement of 20" when measured from the floor wearing sneakers; and cannot exceed 220 lbs.

Special Needs Accommodated: Children with autism spectrum disorders or Down syndrome are eligible. The program cannot support children with a history of aggression or elopement. Parents/caregivers are required to stay on-site during the session.

Luf Children's Burn Camp	Town: Union County: Tolland

Set on 176 acres with its own pond for swimming and boating, the Arthur C. Luf Children's Burn Camp is the only one of its kind in the Northeast. The camp is a safe natural environment for children and youth, ages 8-18, from Connecticut and around the world who have survived life-altering burn injuries. Children can attend free of charge.

The camp experience encourages camaraderie coupled with physical and social activities to help develop self-worth. Activities are designed to support campers in overcoming anxieties as well as enhance their physical skills to be able to move beyond their scarring and burn injuries. Activities include hiking, fishing, archery, boating and a challenging ropes course.

Active and retired firefighters from Fire Departments along the East Coast, medical personnel trained in treating burns, burn survivors, and caring individuals help round out the team of volunteer counselors for the children.

Special Needs Accommodated: Children and youth, ages 8-18, who have survived life-altering burn injuries are welcome.
