

NOW UNDER CONSTRUCTION AT SERC IN MIDDLETOWN...

The Connecticut Early Childhood Resource Center

The State Education Resource Center (SERC) is building on its past activities so as to enhance and expand its support to early childhood educators, service providers, and families of young children.

Plans are underway as follows:

Expanded Continuing Education and Professional Development Opportunities and Resources for Early Care and Education Personnel

- ◆ Job-Embedded Learning Opportunities
- ◆ Personnel Development Workshops, Seminars, Conferences
- ◆ Resources for Use in Staff Development and Parent Education, and Materials Supporting Developmentally Appropriate Practice
- ◆ Collection of Children's Literature Representing Diverse Cultures, Genres, and Content Areas
- ◆ Books and Training Videos

Education and Resources for Families

- ◆ Parent Education and Other Workshops
- ◆ Diverse Collection of Children's Literature
- ◆ Parenting Resources, Focusing on Birth to 3 and Special Education
- ◆ Books, Journals, DVDs/Videos on Child Development and Early Language/Literacy
- ◆ Parent-friendly Hours and Accommodations, including Fee Waivers, Limited Stipends, and Information Available in English and Spanish

Dedicated Section of SERC's Website

www.ctserc.org/earlychildhood

- ◆ Web Links
- ◆ Early Care and Education Resources for Both Families and Educators
- ◆ Updated Information on Professional Development and Other Learning Opportunities

For more information, contact a member of the Early Childhood Education Initiative at SERC:

Anne Marie Davidson, Consultant, ext. 316
 Paquita Sims, Consultant, ext. 313
 Constance J. Smith, Consultant, ext. 384
 Jennifer Sharpe, Education Services Specialist, ext. 268
 (860) 632-1485

Early Childhood Resource Center